FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR NUDE RECREATION MEANS BUSINESS AT THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF STATE LEGISLATURES

KISSIMMEE, FL (July 14, 2008) -- George Washington did it, so did Ben Franklin. Even John Quincy Adams conducted a press interview while doing it. Skinny dip, that is. One of the liberties American Association for Nude Recreation (www.AANR.com) members enjoy, promote and protect. Which is why AANR delegates will descend on New Orleans July 22-28 to participate in the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) convening over those dates.

AANR's participation in this esteemed event is to inform and educate legislators as to who they are as an association in existence for over 75 years, and how they can provide assistance as the credible voice of reason on pending or proposed legislation relative to issues involving nude recreation in appropriate settings.

If you wish to interview an AANR spokesperson during the convention, contact AANR Executive Director Erich Schuttauf (cell: 407-414-5867), or AANR East President Susan Weaver (cell: 703-981-6469) at booth #934 at the Morial Convention Center. To interview an AANR spokesperson prior to the NCSL, contact Mary Jane Kolassa, MaryJane.Kolassa@ypartnership.com or (407) 838-1803.

The credible voice of reason for nude recreation since 1931.

The American Association for Nude Recreation (AANR) is the credible voice of reason on issues of relevance to nude recreation, in appropriate settings. The association, nearly 50,000 members strong has been promoting, enhancing and protecting the First Amendment Right of "pursuit of happiness" through the freedom to enjoy clothes-free and clothing optional recreation and nude living since 1931. AANR advocates preserving the freedoms of today, to ensure it for the generations of tomorrow. Membership in AANR is your passport to fun, and can be had for less than the cost of a bathing suit.
