

about us

The American Association for Nude Recreation (AANR) is the largest, most long-established organization of its kind in North America. With roots dating to 1931, we have grown from our humble beginnings to an organization that serves 213,000 individuals throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico and beyond. We recognize the essential wholesomeness of the human body and that life is enhanced by the naturalness of social nudity. From exercise to relaxation, physical health and mental well-being are enriched through social nude recreation. Members enjoy their own backyards and pools with family and friends, as well as over 200 nudist resorts and affiliates, which maintain ethical standards of behavior in a wholesome, family-friendly atmosphere.

NUDE RECREATION

WOMAN'S PERSPECTIVE

FEEL THE FREEDOM

Sometimes women need a break from the ordinary. Our day to day responsibilities with family and work can provide a lot of stress. A truly relaxing and liberating way to take that break is to visit a naturist retreat, or a nude beach. These are stress-free environments that can provide a real connection to nature.

The relaxation that an AANR club or resort provides is one of the healthiest physical and mental changes possible – total acceptance of who you are on the inside as well as on the outside. Women who enjoy nude living come from all walks of life and span all age groups, occupations, and physical conditions. AANR clubs provide an enriching and supportive environment for all women. There are no pressures and there is a feeling of community and mutual respect.

More and more women are discovering the healthful and empowering benefits of nude living and social nudism.

If you are a little nervous about a first-time visit to an AANR club, ask if they have a WINR (Women in Nude Recreation) group there. If yes, ask for an introduction to a member when you arrive. It is a great ice-breaker and you will definitely enjoy the support and welcome!

A day at a nude resort or naturist retreat allows a relaxation atmosphere when you connect with nature. Imagine the liberation of being in the natural environment. Being nude outdoors is incredible. Finding an established nude beach supported by AANR and associated groups broadens your getaway opportunities and provides places where you are free from judgment on the basis of physical appearance.
