Craft Corner

Who could resist a love note on this adorable little mouse or a mouse heart Valentine pencil? You can make enough for the entire class.

Heart Mouse Valentine

Materials:

Construction paper with a glue stick or craft foam with a hot glue gun.
Red ribbon or yarn • Pipe cleaners • Permanent marker

- Cut a large heart for the body. You'll need three small hearts for the eyes and nose and two even smaller for the center of the eyes. Attach eyes with glue, using the above diagram.
- Make a hole with a hole punch to attach the tail.
- Cut two small slits by the nose with scissors. Make the whiskers by weaving the pipe cleaners through the slits.
- Glue the nose to the point of the heart.
- The last step is the Valentine note on the mouse

TIP—Use a piece of self stick magnet strip to make a refrigerator magnet.

Heart Mouse Valentine Pencil

Materials:

Heavy construction paper • Pipe cleaners • Decorated pencils
Hole punch • Black marker or pen

- From red, pink, or purple paper, cut out several hearts approximately four inches across. On each, draw a nose and eyes. Punch four holes above the mouse's nose. Thread a short length of pipe cleaner through the top two holes and another through the bottom two. Lastly, slip a pencil down behind the whiskers, from the backside of the heart.
